

Reading for Pleasure in Key Stages 2 & 3

1.5 day CPD for teachers and literacy leaders

"All schools should develop policies to promote reading for enjoyment throughout school"

- Ofsted, Moving English Forward, 2012

- Engage in action research
- Examine a range of approaches
- Collaborative with colleagues in your own school and beyond
- Evaluate success and plan for the future

£350 for the first participant

£250 for each additional participant

Email to book:

schools@literacytrust.org.uk

020 7587 3067

@literacytrust

www.literacytrust.org.uk/schools

DAY 1

AIMS:

- to investigate ways to motivate pupils to read for pleasure and create communities of readers
- to consider reading for pleasure within the national curriculum
- to explore the benefits of studying whole texts and engage with practical teaching approaches to impact on reading enjoyment and achievement
- to increase knowledge of children's and young adult literature

SESSIONS:

- Introduction
- Reading for enjoyment
- Using whole texts
- Breadth and depth
- Next steps
- Evaluation

DAY 2

SESSIONS:

- Feedback from schools
- Evaluation
- Engaging the wider school community